A scene from the Midsummer Festival, Kingsburg's annual Swedish celebration, depicting a Swedish mountain view, a den lila stugan i skogen (with a little home amid a cluster of trees).

THE VIKING 1954

PUBLISHED ANNUALLY BY THE STUDENTS OF
KINGSBURG JOINT UNION HIGH SCHOOL
KINGSBURG, CALIFORNIA

DEDICATION

The story of Kingsburg is largely the story of its people and the surrounding agricultural area.

Swedish settlers began to arrive late in 1886 as the result of the visit to Kingsburg made earlier that year by Andrew Erickson, who had been sent by an "emigration society" in Ishpeming, Michigan, to scout California for a suitable agricultural location.

In 1886 Kingsburg was a "wide-open town," because of the high wages paid by the wheat farmers in the area. The immigrants from Sweden were always more interested in raising fruit than grain. It was largely they who started the trend toward orchards and vineyards.

Other Swedes followed the first ones in the next few years, so that their numbers probably account for the rise in the census from 88 in 1880 to 291 by 1890.

So the settlers came, some alone and others in groups, from far and near, to build their homes and live in our town.

It is to these people, and also to the many others who have played a part in the story of this community, that we dedicate the '54 Viking.

May those who read these pages pause, and be thankful to God for America, the land of opportunity.

FOREWORD

The Wheatville post office was established in June, 1874. In November of that year the name was changed to Kingsbury, in February of 1876 to Kingsburgh, and in January, 1894, to the present spelling, Kingsburg.

Our town has changed not only in name, but also in character. From a wheat-shipping center in the '70's and '80's, it has developed into a thriving agricultural community.

Business and employment opportunities are kept at a high level. Industries include a peach cannery, a cotton oil plant, several cotton gins, plants for packing fruit and manufacturing stockfeed and farm equipment, two large wineries, a raisin house, and a tire-recapping plant.

During the peak season, employment reaches well over 1,000, the cannery alone having a payroll in excess of a half-million dollars.

Many people of Swedish descent have settled in Kingsburg, and once a year Kingsburg becomes a bit of the homeland of her Scandinavian forebears. The gold and blue of Sweden bedeck the town, and businessmen, housewives, and children dress in costume for the annual Midsummer festival day.

Here, then, is the 1954 Viking, telling the story of both our school life, and of Kingsburg, "A real home town."

Editor, Lois Rosander.

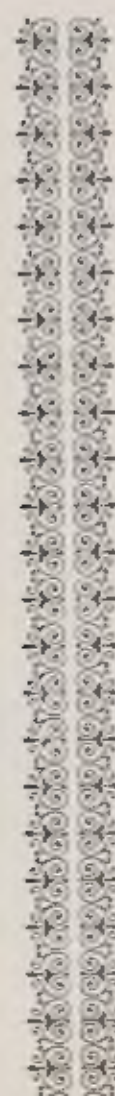

LEADERSHIP . . .

WE ARE GUIDED IN THE AMERICAN WAY

Kingsburg's churches indicate the wholesome character of our community. The Swedish Lutheran, founded in 1887 as the first Lutheran church in the San Joaquin Valley, is typical of the many churches in our town. It was here that the Swedish immigrants first worshiped, looking to God for divine leadership.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

LUTHER LINDA
Clerk

A. E. SWANSON

GORDON SATTERBERG

JAMES CASSIDY

HENRY SWANSON
President

Elected by the people of the school district and entrusted with the guidance of KHS is a board of trustees composed of Henry Swanson, Gordon Satterberg, James Cassidy, Luther Linda, and A. E. Swanson. Working at what is often a thankless task, these men devote many hours to school problems.

Mr. Henry Swanson, Mr. Cassidy and Mr. Linda state that their main occupation is farming. Mr. Satterberg is the owner and proprietor of the Model Drug, and Mr. A. E. Swanson is president of the Sun Maid Raisin Growers Association.

ADMINISTRATION

Principal O. E. Ludlow was born in Indian Territory, which is now Oklahoma in 1906.

Mr. Ludlow, who is of Scotch-Irish ancestry has been in Kingsburg for three years. He was previously the high school principal in Portola, California and in several high schools in New Mexico.

Prior to that, he served three years as a United States Navy officer, taught girls physical education, was runner-up in the Olympic tryouts in boxing in 1932, and coached the boxing team of his alma mater, Oklahoma A and M. College, where he obtained his B.S. and M. S. degrees.

For their future success Mr. Ludlow's goal is to give students an opportunity to think for themselves in student government and other student activities without embarrassment or fear of retaliation from the administration.

Besides supervising the student council and the over-all program of the school Mr. Ludlow is active in the Masonic Lodge, Eastern Star, Lions Club, and V.F.W. and is a member of the Methodist Church.

ODIE E. LUDLOW
Principal

Vice principal Peterson, who was born in Chicago, Illinois, came to Kingsburg with his parents in 1905.

Upon graduating from Kingsburg High School as valedictorian of the class of 1926 Mr. Peterson attended the University of California where he received an A.B. degree and won membership in Phi Delta Kappa, honorary education fraternity.

Since his parents were born in Sweden and spoke Swedish Mr. Peterson used that language before learning English. He read at least one Swedish book each year.

Mr. Peterson, vice principal since 1933, has taught mathematics in Kingsburg since 1922 with the exception of three years when, as an officer in the Army Air Force, he was an instructor of navigation and meteorology. He also served in the army in World War I.

Mr. Peterson is a member of the Kiwanis Club, American Legion, Baptist Church, and is a foreman in the receiving department of the California Packing Corporation during the summer.

EJNAR PETERSON
Vice-Principal

New to KHS this year is Mrs. Doris Sherman, counselor. Mrs. Sherman has had experience in both the work of a teacher and teaching.

Mrs. Christensen, dean of girls, is completing her sixth year at KHS.

Mr. Henderson, school auditor, came to Kingsburg in 1920. He taught commercial subjects here until 1948 and since then has been full-time business manager.

Also new at KHS is Mr. Barnes, school nurse.

Employed as school secretary is Miss Betty Greer.

Student government is symbolic of the democratic leadership at Kingsburg High School. Students have taken over much of the leadership this year by forming committees.

A traffic control committee was set up for the purpose of controlling student drivers. Rules were enforced by this committee, which acted as a jury for any violation of the law.

Student disciplinary and cafeteria committees were also formed. They took care of student behavior on the school grounds and in the cafeteria.

Under the fine leadership of the student council had this year, many things were accomplished.

The council met during the noon hour

THE STUDENTS . . .

WE LEARN THROUGH OBSERVATION AND EXPERIENCE

The first school in our town was a crude 12 x 14 structure, built in 1873 and outgrown in its first year. The people of Kingsburg sought education, even choosing a piece of land for a college site, but this dream was never realized. The public school system is now composed of three elementary schools and one high school.

Seniors climb on the bus for their trip to Fresno during senior week

Beginning a successful year in the traditional manner, the seniors welcomed the freshman class to KHS with the senior-freshman reception, held at Burris Park on October 14.

Under the able leadership of C. M. Dodson, class adviser, and his assistants, Leonard Mason and Ray Boucher, the seniors worked plenty of enjoyable activity into their last year.

The class enjoyed a skating party in Fresno on January 18 and also the hayride held in the spring.

The senior play, "On the Night of January 16," was presented to the public on March 25 and 26. The seniors also presented their class program in the spring.

A class trip to Reedley College was taken on March 18 for the seventh annual Fresno County Career Day.

Senior Week, with days of full activity at various designated places, was enjoyed during the latter part of May by the seniors, who were also guests at the junior-senior banquet at that time.

Bringing the school year to a close, the seniors presented the school with a trophy case as the traditional gift, attended the Baccalaureate service, and maximized their wonderful time together with graduation on June 3.

SCHOOL LIFE . . .

UNITY PROMOTES DEMOCRACY

The population of our town in the 1880 census was recorded at 88 and in 1890 at 291. By 1908 it had risen to 500. Six churches, a high school with three teachers, a grammar school with six teachers, a bank, a newspaper, five fraternal orders, five general merchandise stores, and two brass bands were further evidences of growth. In that year, the town was incorporated.

The 1954 Viking had its beginning last spring when Lois Rosander, our capable editor, drew up the plans for it. Since then many hours of hard work have gone into its production. Katherine Bowen was elected assistant editor.

A colored picture is being used this year for the first time. The staff strived to produce a yearbook which would be far above everyone's expectations and be a source of pleasure in future years

Cathy Conner kept the Viking on a firm financial basis throughout the year in her position as business manager. An efficient job of getting copy prepared for the deadline was done by Dixie Glaser, copy editor. Frank Scott served in the capacity of sports editor. Mr. Delbert W. Scott was the able adviser of this year's staff and much credit is due him.

VIKING VOICE

During this ninth consecutive year of Viking Voice publication, the staff has continued publishing on a tri-weekly basis.

Viking Voice is a member of the San Joaquin Valley Scholastic Press Association, National Scholastic Press Association, and Quill and Scroll. High ratings have been received by our paper from these judging groups.

Journalism classes report for the Viking Voice, new reporters from Journalism I being added to the staff after a briefing on newspaper technique and requirements.

Conferences held in the fall and spring were attended by many journalism students. At the fall conference, Marilyn Larson placed first in a feature writing contest, and Frank Scott in a sports writing contest.

Several staff members qualified for Quill and Scroll membership this year. Phyllis Lungren and Marvin Harrison reported school affairs weekly from the KRDU radio station in D'nuba.

An intensive exchange program was carried on with other schools in California and in other states.

At the beginning of the year the marching band played at the football games. During basketball season the pep band sparked at the games.

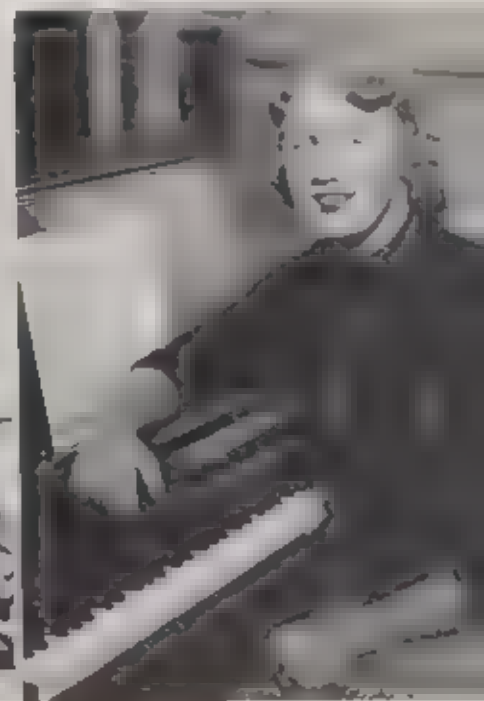

One of the main events of the music department was the music show given May 20 and 21. At this performance "Cumberland Fair," by Alec Wagner, the first concert given at Kingsburg High School for many years, was greatly enjoyed by all attending.

The orchestra played for both the junior and senior plays, and also gave a Christmas concert on December 17.

Completing the year, the band, orchestra and chorus gave a last concert.

This year has some outstanding activities to its credit.

One of the big all-school projects was the job of improving the pep rallies. This proved quite successful, as all the KHS'ers really raised the roof in subsequent pep rallies.

Another form of school spirit was shown at the serpentine and bonfire held during the early part of the school year.

After several games, dances were held for the enjoyment of KHS students and, occasionally, students from the other schools, who were invited to attend.

To promote better relations between KHS and neighboring schools several exchange assemblies were given during the year. These assemblies called for much work, but the fun in giving them made up for the hard work.

As the school year progressed, many lyceums were presented for the enjoyment of everyone. The lyceums were exceptionally interesting and really helped to break up the long day of study.

A requirement of each class was to give an assembly sometime during the school year. As each program was presented, it was discovered that the school had a great amount of hidden talent.

Several dances were given during the holiday seasons by various school organizations. The Christmas, Spring Day, and Valentine Day dances were well attended by the students.

The Alumni Dance and Party brought a crowd of alumni from all over the country back to KHS to renew old acquaintances.

Everyone attending agreed that the juniors put on a wonderful prom with a very interesting and original theme.

A large representation from Kingsburg went to the CSF fall and spring conferences at Yosemite Park and Washington Union High School.

Kingsburg also sent four representatives to the YMCA Model Legislature in Sacramento. Two of these representatives were from the Tri-Hi-Y, and two from the Hi-Y clubs.

This year the classes themselves have been busy with their own activities.

The Senior-Freshman reception, held at Burris Park, provided a lot of fun for the two classes.

Fun and falls were in order when the seniors went to Fresno for a class skate. After this, each of the other classes decided to try their skill at this sport and followed by having their own separate skating parties.

Founded in 1923 by E more "Pedro" Peterson, an active leader of Kingsburg who died this year, the KHS Hi-Y started their thirtieth year in the fall.

Although the club has not always been a part of the school's extracurricular activities, it now plays a prominent part in the school life of many boys. Last year KHS was represented in the Fresno County Hi-Y, Tri-Hi-Y organization by Rafer Johnson, who was the president of the group. This year Dennis Norrby was co-president of the Fresno County group and Monte Clark, co vice president.

The Hi-Y had a well rounded year of activities, beginning in October with a conference at Camp Gaines. Members also attended the football game between the University of California and UCLA at Los Angeles. The annual Christmas program came just before Christmas vacation, all the proceeds going to needy families in the Kingsburg community.

In January the club attended a conference at Reedley College.

To promote good sportsmanship and to have a better understanding of all sports were the chief aims of the Girls' Athletic Association this past year.

For the first time since 1951 the girls had a freshman initiation. Each freshman was given a list of assignments that had to be carried out before he was accepted into GAA. All girls passed the initiation with flying colors.

Play days were attended at Crocker-Reedley and Kingsburg. Each playday was highly successful with trophies from all over the valley represented.

The annual Spring Day dance and party, which the GAA gives each year, was their big project for the year. The girls worked hard and long to make the dance a big success.

The sports that the girls participated in were volleyball, basketball, basketball, tennis, and badminton.

Social activities include a visit to the Fresno Swim Park where the girls swam, played ping-pong, and had a small lunch before coming home.

An enthusiastic audience evidenced the success of the first of this year's plays.

'Dear Ruth' was the two-act comedy presented by the junior class and directed by Bob Somerindyke of the English department. Carol Ramay was the student director.

This play was about a young girl, Miriam Wilkins, who carried on a correspondence with several service men overseas "to keep up their morale." This was fine, but the fact that she used her older sister's name made things difficult. Complications developed, and havoc occurred when one of the servicemen, Lieutenant William Seawright, came calling with a matrimonial look in his eyes.

To make things even more confusing, Ruth Wilkins, the older sister, became engaged to another man the afternoon before she met Bill Seawright. But as the saying goes, "All is well that ends well."

The play was given December 3 and 4, 1953, in the KHS Auditorium. The proceeds went into the junior class treasury to help finance the annual junior senior banquet, prom, and party given in the spring, when all of the upperclassmen don their formal attire for the last big event of the year.

This play was a complete contrast to last year's junior play, 'Our Town,' a very serious drama.

CHAMPIONS

The Varsity squad completed successfully the 1953 football season as they plunged their way through the Lindsay Cardinals to the championship of the Shasta League for the second consecutive year.

Defeated only by Fowler, 3 to 0, captained by Rafer Johnson and coached by Leonard Masini in his first year at KHS, the Varsity had a very high seasonal standard.

Don Martin, guard, was chosen as the team's most valuable player. Monte Clark, tackle, was elected captain for 1954.

Kingsburg placed five men on the all-star league team. Those honored were Dale Fore, guard; George Jackson, center; Rafer Johnson, halfback; Don Martin, guard, and Guy Troisi, fullback. Louis Lopez placed on the second string.

A banquet honoring the team was given by three local service organizations, with Lynn "Pappy" Waldorf, head football coach at the University of California, the guest speaker.

*Under the able coaching of "Mickey" Masini in his first year at KHS the Vikings won their third consecutive Shasta League championship.

The Vikings piled up an amazing record of 19 wins and one loss, the one defeat being at the hands of Chowchilla in their eighteenth game.

Coach Masini used the terrific starting combination of Rafer Johnson, Thurston King, Edward Mascarin, Don Martin, and Guy Troisi, with seven substitutes. These were Glenn Carlson, Jim Cassidy, Monte Clark, Joel Finley, Dan Fore, George Jackson, and Clarence Treat.

In league play, Kingsburg managed 9 wins against 1 defeat, followed by Central Union which had 6 wins and 4 losses. The Vikings experienced victory for the third consecutive year in the Lions Club tournament, winning the traveling trophy permanently for our school. During the year, Rafer Johnson piled up 347 points, Guy Troisi finished with 280 points, Ed Mascarin had 256 points, Thurston King, 139, and Don Martin, 99.

The relay team, composed of Wiley, Finley, Troisi, and Johnson, also did well this year.

During his two years as track coach, Murl Dodson has established a fine record, his teams having placed at the top in every meet last year, including the sweepstakes in the Northern Shasta meet and in the combined Shasta League meet.

SWIMMING

The swimming team, coached by A. B. Ediger and Miss Viola Leverich, entered many league and practice meets.

Greater participation strengthened their ability to gain winning points in their spacious pool.

Outstanding events of the season were the Shasta divisional and Valley meets held in Lindsay.

New practice drills and hard work improved the speed and timing of the swimmers. A manager was appointed to assist the coaches and keep records.

The laurel most recently conferred upon Rafer is that of being chosen to play in the Shrine All Star high school football game July 21 in Los Angeles.

Chosen to reign over the championship football game between Lindsay and Kingsburg were Queen Leona Lofgren and her attendants Janice Lahann, Mary Sue Jones, and Janice Hays.

Leona was additionally honored by receiving the Daughters of the American Revolution award.

Rafer Johnson and Calvin Johnson were elected mayor and police chief of Avalor respectively during a Bible Club convention held on Catalina Is and during the Christmas vacation.

Noted for their achievements in journalism were Marilyn Larson, Catherine Conner, Phyllis Lungren, and Lois Rosander.

Ronald Hedin was awarded the California State Farmer title for his achievement in agriculture.

PEP LEADERS

Green and gold pompons were in the spotlight at our pep assemblies and games this year when pep girls Dixie Glaser, Jeanne White, Theresa Barros, Cathy Conner and Margie Rodgers performed numerous formations to the music of the KHS band. The three routines most commonly used by the quintet were "Circle Five," "Cheerleader" and the "Triangle" along with some snappy new ones.

Yell leaders Pat Tannison, Darlene Nelson, and Ben Treat promoted our school spirit with their peppy yells. Highlights of the year were the exchange pep assembly given with Seema High and the annual bonfire rally and serpentine.

CAMPUS EMPLOYEES

The custodians have helped to improve the appearance of our school this year. Odors of paint and varnish were present around school at various times.

New to the staff this year are Paul Skellie, Raney Stephens and Bill Bolding. Reuben Johnson, Paul Peterson, Levi Pearson and Clarence Esau are old hands at the various jobs. These men are trained for several jobs and very little outside help is needed.

The cafeteria has changed its complexion this year by the addition of curtains and a new coat of paint. Meals that were served daily to KHS students were prepared by Ingrid Bjorklund and Tina Strid, with Alice Meteer helping them out part time.

Dearest Don:

I've really enjoyed having a guy who is so understanding and nice. I hope we can continue our friendship & love always.

I hope you have the best of Luck that anyone can receive. Don't ever get discouraged no matter what people may do. There is always someone on your side. Even if it's your closest friend or loved one you can always look to your "heavenly father" and he will always give comfort and guidance.

Please stay as wonderful & good as you are now. I don't think anyone can be as sweet as you. (when you want to be)

Of course no one is perfect but in my eyes you are the next best.

Keep your goals set high and work toward anything you want and your life will be a success. I only hope that I can be there to help you enjoy it.

If you really want something bad enough I think you'll receive it. I hope some day I'll know, for sure, that all I think you are is true. I hope we will always be together helping each other and getting joy out of it. Help me to realize these hopes in your actions and love for me.

With all my love to a wonderful guy.
